Once the Games Begin...

...you can follow all of the NYAC action on the Club's dedicated Tokyo 2020 micro-site. News, results, updates, reports - you can find it all by going to www.nyac-tokyo2020.com. Or just visit www.nyac.org, where you will find the link on the home page. In Rio de Janeiro in 2016, the Club's athletes claimed 20 Olympic gold medals. To approach that number would be exceptional in Tokyo. But who's to say? Anything is possible courtesy of Adeline Gray, Joe Kovacs, DeAnna Price, the women's water polo team, the women's eight, and so many more. We may keep our hopes and expectations high in the knowledge that the only thing that is assured is that the action will be fast and furious and exciting. To keep abreast of it all, visit the micro-site regularly, and cheer our NYAC athletes every step of the way.

The Story So Far

The NYAC at the Olympic Games, 1896 - 2016

The NYAC's medal count at the Olympic Games is the most tangible manifestation of the Club's athletics success.

As we look towards the July 23rd Opening Ceremony of the Games of the XXXII Olympiad in Tokyo, it can be intriguing to reflect on the legendary Olympians who have worn the NYAC's celebrated winged foot, while also appreciating the Club's continuing impact on the Olympic movement.
